REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES.

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

Report No. 1.

Whereas, The State of Arkansas will be dry under the new liquor law after Dec. 31st, 1913, and liquor saloons can be had in incorporated towns and cities only by petition signed by a majority of the adult white inhabitants thereof, and Whereas, Petitions for liquor license are being circulated in several towns and cities within our bonuds, the city of Pine Blcff included, many church members as well as other good citizens are being urged to sign same, therefore be it

Resolved, That we regard the liquor saloons as being the greatest enemy to the church, as well as to the morals, safety and prosperity of the people, and hereby urge the membership of our churches, as well as all good citizens to refuse to sign any such petition, and thereby refuse to countenance or endorse the liquor traffic.

Second, That we repuest the press of our state to publish this expression of the liquor traffic.

Signed,
 B. A. FEW, Chairman.

C. H. Williams, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2 OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

Whereas, The greatest enemy of the State, church and home is the liquor traffic, therefore be it

Resolved that we reaffirm our position of relentless opposition to the liquor traffic in all its forms—it cannot be legalized in any way without sin; it cannot be handled in any way without producing poverty, ruin and death; it cannot be supported or upheld, in any way without becoming a party to its existence, and therefore sharing in the responsibility for the ruin which results because of its existence; it cannot exist without support.

Resolved, second, That we record our appreciation of the Going Liquor Law enacted by the recent General Assembly of the State of Arkansas, believing that in it we have the most effective Liquor Law now in existence; it is a form of Local Self Government which will give us State-wide Prohibition in the most effective way.

Resolved, Third, That we express our appreciation also of the Webb Federal law which prohibits the shipments of liquor into dry territory.

Resolved, Fourth, That we will withhold our support from all candidates for public office until we are satisfied that they are men who are in favor both of our Liquor Laws as they now exist, and the rigid enforcement of same. Especially will we be careful in this matter regarding the candidates for the next General Assembly.

Resolved Fifth, That we call the attention of our pastors and people to paragraph 222 in our book of discipline, which forbids our members to sign petitions for saloon licenses.

We most heartily recommend the work of Rev. Frank Barrett, the faithful and efficient Superintendent of the Arkansas Anti-Saloon League, to whose tactful and wise organization and effort we are indebted for the passage of the Going Law, and the successful law enforcement campaign over the State for the past year.

We recommend that the following persons be appointed by the Little Rock Conference as its representatives on the Anti-Saloon League of the State; Rev. Frank Barrett, Geo. Thornburgh, Rev. B. A. Few, Rev. W. C. Davidson, J. I. Porter, J. O. A. Bush and J. L. DeLoney.

Signed,

B. A. FEW, Chairman.
C. H. WILLIAMS, Sec.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

General Condition:

1. We are glad to report that Dr. E. B. Chappell, our Sunday school Editor, informs us there has been an increase of 100,535 in the circulation of our literature.

2. That there has been an increase of 14,608 in the enrollment of pupils for the year closing April 1st, 1913.

3. That the growth in the Wesley Adult Classes has been large; 3000 classes are enrolled.

4. That the offerings from Children's Day, while increasing, are still inadequate for the extension of our Sunday School work in Institute and Teachers' Training Efforts. We would heartily recommend the taking of the correspondence course for teachers.

Condition in Our Conference:

We are glad to report that the Arkadelphia District reports Children's Day collections from every charge. There is a marked improvement in the other districts.

We appreciate the interest shown by the presiding elders in our work at their District Conferences, and ask for a full presentation at their next conferences.

The increase in Children's Day collections, we think, guarantees an increased expense in pushing the work this coming year in such ways as our chairman and secretary advise. We recommend the appropriation of the needed amount for this work.

We are glad to report that as only $11,900.00 of the $50,000.00 needed for the endowment of the chair of Teacher Training in Vanderbilt is now needed, we ask that special attention be given to getting full collections the coming year.

We ask for the more general use of birthday jars for the Sunday School loan fund.

Inasmuch as the annual meeting of the Conference Sunday School Board of Chairman and Field Secretaries is set for January, 1914 at Hot Springs, we would urge an attendance of our Sunday School leaders. We recommend the employing of a field Secretary just as soon as the funds can be raised for such work.

We request that all remittances be made to Rev. J. M. Workman, Secretary, at Little Rock.

COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, beg leave to report as follows:

We have had before us and carefully read and considered the journals of all the districts of this conference except that of the Texarkana District.

We find that the Arkadelphia Journal is neatly and accurately kept. We find that the Arkadelphia Journal is neatly and accurately kept.

The Monticello Journal shows carelessness in writing and in the use of the blotter, and shows the official roll in the body of the minutes instead of at the beginning.

The Pine Bluff Journal has no marginal references and there is a carelessness in punctuation. Also a want of proper language to express the business of the Conference.

The Little Rock Journal has no marginal references. There is also a lack of neatness and a frequent misspelling of words, and a waste of space between paragraphs.

In the Camden Journal we note a too frequent use of the word "Rev.," and some awkwardly arranged sentences.

The Prescott Journal has no marginal references and there is a too frequent use of the word "Bro." and "Rev.," and some minor defects.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

We, your Committee on Publishing Interests, submit the following report:

We find the financial statement of the Nashville Publishing House and of the Dallas and Richmond branches very satisfactory.

We desire also to express our appreciation of the efforts of the new editors and managers of the Western Methodist to increase the efficiency and circulation of that paper. The editors assure us that they are anxious to get all of the church news from all parts of the territory represented by the paper, and we trust that our pastors will send them the news.

For the purpose of getting the paper into as many homes as possible where there is a member of our church, the managers propose to furnish the paper for $1.00 per year, provided the pastor who sends in the subscriptions sends also the statement that the list contains all the homes in that charge where there is a member of our church. We endorse this plan.

We recommend that Prof. C. J. Greene and Rev. W. R. Richardson be continued as the representatives of this Conference on the Editorial Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
W. R. RICHARDSON, Chairman.
R. H. CANNON, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, Inter-collegiate football is bringing much censure upon the church, and it is increasingly difficult to prevent the athletic ideal from overshadowing the church's aim in education, and

Whereas, inter-collegiate athletics make heavy financial demands upon its supporters and is encouraged as an advertisement of Christian education, and is a disintegrating rather than a constructive force in our educational work, and

Whereas, much that is contrary to Christian ethics is chargeable to these inter-collegiate contests, such as profanity, gambling, Sabbath desecration, and acrimonious rivalry, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That we recommend that the Trustees of the Colleges under our control abolish inter-collegiate football from our policy and practice.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

WHEREAS, The tendencies to the holiday and work-day Sunday has become marred, and it is necessary for good citizens of all classes to unite in an effort to preserve the quiet, thoughtful and worshipful Sunday for ourselves, our children, and the interest of our country:

WHEREAS, The "Sunday League of America" has taken the lead in this movement to call a halt on these tendencies, and to restore that type of Sunday recognized in our law, our history and our civilization;

WHEREAS, Our General Conference eleven years ago put the "Sunday League of America" into the Discipline by the side of the "American Bible Society" as one of the two interdenominational societies worthy of special notice, and indeed every General Conference since has prominently recognized its value;

WHEREAS, The "Sunday League of America" does not ask for any collections, but seeks instead to plant its popular literature which we have examined and approved, as valuable and inexpensive;

WHEREAS, Dr. Edward Thomas, the General Manager of this "League" proposes to make a tour of our state in the near future, holding interdenominational meetings to arouse the people on this subject;

WHEREAS, His work has come to us most highly commended

as helpful to the Churches and Civic Conditions;

THEREFORE, We hereby welcome Dr. Thompson to our State, and pledge ourselves to assist him in securing engagements for such meetings, and will help him to get subscribers for this literature to educate the conscience, and indoctrinate the people of all faiths on the Sunday Question.

C. H. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren: We, your Board of Missions, desire to report as follows:

We have had under careful review the Missions of our Conference. In the main they have made advancement under our faithful Missionaries. Our Cedar Glades Mission is a splendid success, yet we are sorry to note that the Epworth Leagues are not giving it the prompt support necessary to keep off embarrassment. The Executive Committee of the Board held a very helpful meeting at Little Rock in February for the study and discussion of our problems. We earnestly plead for the loyal support of our Foreign Missions. But our interest in Foreign Missions must not lead us to overlook our Home Field, for here we have the sources of supply, both of men and money. To carry out the great commission we must begin in Arkansas; in country and in city the needs are great. Leadership and wealth seem to go together in our great centers; why not use them in our city mission work and to supply lay leadership in many of our rural sections? Just one great lay leader in each district would awaken wide-spread interest in the cause of Missions in a single year.

Our brother in black looks to us for sympathy, encouragement and help. We must not disappoint our colored brethren.

Our Missionary Secretary and our Missionaries now on a furlough at home, give most encouraging reports of our foreign fields, and with growing interest and larger giving at home we have great hope for the immediate future.

The Second General Missionary Conference which was held at Junaluska last June, surpassed all former Missionary Conferences, and clearly showed that the church is ready for larger things. The Voice from over the seas; the voice of an awakened church at home and the voice from on high, is, to speak to the people that they go forward.

Your board would urge that emphatic emphasis be placed upon our Every Member Campaign, as a means of giving out Missionary intelligence, quickening the missionary conscience and raising the further missionary assessments.

We would further urge that the missionary collection be gathered in and sent forward in the early part of the year, so as to save the General Board from having to pay interest.

We would respectfully call your attention to the fact that missionary offerings made by our Sunday Schools should be counted as specials and not used on the regular assessments for missions.

We recommend the appointment of Forney Hutchinson, Conference Missionary Secretary.

The total amount collected and put in our hands for distribution, including Epworth League pledge, was $4,675.00, which has been distributed as follows:

LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE HISTORY COMMISSION.

The purpose of the Little Rock Conference is to preserve the history of Methodism in the State of Arkansas, and especially in the Southern half of the State.

The Commission hereby calls on all who have important historical data to turn the same over into the hands of our Secretary, in order that important facts connected with our church may be carefully preserved.

Our old people, both preachers and laymen, ought to be able to furnish us much interesting material.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS.

Whereas, The educational requirements of the candidates for admission on trial into the traveling connection has been raised but little if any, in the past thirty or forty years; and,

Whereas, during this time facilities for securing an education have greatly increased; and

Whereas our Methodist people, as well as the general public are extremely and generously patronizing the schools and colleges of the country, and therefore require and demand an educated ministry; therefore, be it

Resolved that we hereby memorialize the General Conference to take the necessary steps to require of candidates for admission on trial the satisfactory completion of a course of instruction equivalent to that required by the Commission on Education for admission to the Freshman Class of an A-grade college.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE PROVIDING FOR JUNIOR COLLEGES.

Whereas, the Discipline makes provision for only three classes of institutions of learning, namely: Academies, colleges and Universities, and, whereas we have institutions which are neither academies, colleges nor universities, and whereas the Discipline makes the duty of the Board of Education to classify all our institutions, Therefore,

Be it Resolved, That we memorialize the General Conference which meets in May, 1914, to make provision for a fourth class of institutions which give as much as two years of standard college work. They may be called junior colleges.

MEMORIAL TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE, CONCERNING THE APOSTLE'S CREED.

To the General Conference, M. E. Church, South, Meeting in 1914:
Dear Fathers and Brethren:—

Whereas, the name of "Holy Catholic Church," as it now appears in our form of the Apostle's Creed, is objectionable, 1st, because the word "Catholic" as here used is not intelligible to a great number of our people, but often an occasion of confusion of thought because of the long association of this word with the Church of Rome; and 2nd, because it is not a Scriptural name; Therefore, we the Little Rock Conference, do respectfully memorialize your venerable body to change this name from "Holy Catholic Church" to "Church of God."

To the Bishop and Members of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—

We, the Little Rock Annual Conference, in session assembled at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, respectfully memorialize the General Conference to amend paragraph 77, answer 10 in the Discipline as follows: After the word "Trial," in line 15 of the above mentioned paragraph add the words, "and for readmission, and to receive ministers from other churches as local preachers, subject to the same restrictions and regulations governing the reception of such ministers by the District Conference," so that the entire sentence when amended will read as follows: "They shall serve until the ensuing Annual Conference, and in case of absolute necessity, shall have power, by unanimous vote, on thorough examination on the prescribed course of study, to license proper persons to preach, and to recommend proper persons to the Annual Conference for admission on trial, and for readmission; and to receive ministers from other churches, as local preachers, subject to the same restrictions and regulations governing the reception of such ministers by the District Conference.

To the Bishop and Members of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to be held in Oklahoma City, Okla., May, 1914.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—

We, the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, Nov. 23, 1913, respectfully present the following memorial for your consideration:

Heartily approving the movement of the Arkansas and White River Annual Conferences to unite the said two Conferences thus forming two Annual Conferences in our State, instead of three, as at present, and believing that the interests of our common Methodism in this State can best be served by two Annual Conferences of approximately the same size and strength, neither overshadowing nor largely outvoting the other, we recommend that in the readjustment the line between the two Conferences be so fixed as to make the two Conferences as nearly equal as possible.

The Arkansas Conference shall embrace all that part of the State of Arkansas north of line beginning at a point on the Mississippi river to run due west to the northeast corner of St. Francis County, and following the northern boundaries of St. Francis, Monroe, Prairie, Lonoke, Pulaski, Saline, Garland, Montgomery and Polk Counties to the western boundary of the State.

AN EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE.

Whereas, The experience of Methodism for more than a hundred years has shown the wisdom and efficiency of our itinerant method of supplying the people with pastors; and, whereas it is essential to this method that the pastors, as far as practicable, live among the people whom they serve; and, whereas the bishops are not only our chief pastors but are among our strongest and most influential men; and, whereas every reason which may be offered for pastors living within their charges and presiding elders within their districts, may also be urged with emphasis as a reason for the Bishops residing within their Episcopal districts; Therefore, be it resolved,

That we hereby memorialize the General Conference which meets in May, 1914, to take steps necessary to enable and to require each Bishop to reside, if possible, within the Episcopal district presided over by him. The legislation which we seek should secure the following results:

First: The division of our entire territory into as many Episcopal districts as there are active Bishops.

Second: Each Episcopal district to be composed, as far as possible, of contiguous annual conferences as is the case now in the composition of the presiding elders district of contiguous pastoral charges.

Third: The establishment of an Episcopal residence within each Episcopal district which must be occupied, if at all practicable, by the Bishop in charge.

Fourth: The law governing the length of the pastoral term shall be the same for pastors, presiding elders and bishops.

Fifth: The Episcopal districts to be formed by a committee composed of three bishops, two traveling elders and two laymen, all appointed by the General Conference.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, our dear brother, Rev. James E. Caldwell, has so faithfully attended the sessions of the Little Rock Conference for so many years, where he could see if he could not hear us, honoring us with his Godly presence, and

Whereas, we regret to learn he is not well enough to be present at this Conference, therefore be it

Resolved, That we commend our love and prayers to and for him, and assure him how we have appreciated his "warm thoughts" for the whole church as have appeared in the Western Methodist from time to time, and continue to pray that the Lord's abounding grace may ever be his comfort and support.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Little Rock Conference be requested to forward him a copy of these resolutions at Tulip, Ark.

J. R. SANDERS,
T. O. RORIE.

Pine Bluff, Ark., November 22, 1913.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:
Dear Brethren:—

We, your Bible Board, beg leave to submit the following report:

The American Bible Society is pursuing with great encouragement its work of translating, publishing and distributing the Holy Scriptures. In the past ninety-seven years of its history ninety-eight million volumes have been issued, and in the past year, 1912, more than four million volumes were put in circulation. In spite of the political turmoil, in China alone one million copies have been distributed, and the work of the society has been signally blessed in Mexico. At home and abroad some one thousand two hundred colporteurs are at work.

The following paragraphs from Rev. J. J. Morgan, in regard to the work of the Southwestern Agency, is full of inspiration, and justifies both our gratitude and continued support.

At home, the progress has also been very gratifying. The Southwestern Agency (your agency if you please) distributed last year 56,580 volumes of Scriptures, a gain of 1392. We employed fifty-six persons in this work, 16 of whom were salaried colporteurs who worked chiefly amongst foreigners, especially the Mexicans, Italians, French, Germans, Bohemians and Scandinavians. The crying need for the work in the Southwest is very evident from the fact that out of the 63,472 homes visited by our colporteurs last year, more than twenty-four thousand were found to be without any portion of the Bible.

"Mission Churches, Sunday Schools, Rescue Homes, Orphanages, Reform Schools, News Boys, Jails and Penitentiaries have all made large demands for donations the past year. And besides there are unusual calls from the drouth-stricken districts. As liberally as possible we have met these great needs, donating straight out 9,661 volumes of Scriptures and discounting from the cost value to the amount of $657.32."

At the depository in Dallas, Texas, 50,000 volumes of the Scriptures are in stock in 35 languages, and in the four States of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma, which comprise the Southwestern Agency, there are one million foreigners.

Arkansas is receiving liberal help from the Society, and the labors of the three colporteurs in our borders have been signally fruitful. The inspiring story of Mr. Ringsmith's work, given in full in the report of the Southwestern Agency for 1913, should be read and told by all our preachers. Mr. Ringsmith, Mr. Hall and Mr. Sproule traveled altogether 7,583 miles in 1912, visited 12,446 homes and distributed 6,892 volumes of Scripture. Many homes were furnished gratis.

That the interest of the Little Rock Conference in the American Bible Society is growing is indicated by the fact that this year we can report a collection of $406.00, which is 80% of the assessment. We recommend the same assessment for next year, with the same apportionment to the district, and urge our preachers to set apart one service in the year for a sermon on the Bible, and secure this collection in full.

Your Board has more definite plans for the representation of the work before the District Conferences.

H. E. WHEELER, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:
We, your Board of Education, beg to submit the following report:

There were before us the President and other officials of Hendrix, Galloway and Henderson-Brown Colleges. We have carefully considered the reports and requests from the Boards and Trustees of these institutions. We have also considered the communications referred to us from the General Secretary of Education and of the Superintendent of the department of Ministerial Supply and Training. We note with gratification that the Boards of Trustees of each of these three colleges are endeavoring to enlarge their equipment and increase their endowment.

Galloway College.

The President reports an enrollment of 195 students, more by ten than the entire enrollment of the previous year, and an addition of three new members to the faculty for the present session.

The boarding department is larger than any previous year. The plant has been steadily improved during the past six years. Within the last twelve months sewerage and baths have been installed in the cottage dormitories, twenty-seven practice rooms have been built and out of the old practice circle five of the best rooms of their building have been constructed. The cost of these improvements will approximate twenty-five hundred dollars.

The property is valued at $114,500. A gymnasium is in process of construction, which when finished and furnished will cost about $7,500. This building has been made possible through the work of the Commissioner, Rev. W. C. Watson.

The work of Rev. W. C. Watson, as Commissioner of Education, up to the present time has resulted in the collection of notes, subscriptions and gifts in lumber, to a sum aggregating $48,500. The notes and cash have been deposited in the Peoples Bank of Searcy, and are in the custody of the cashier of this institution. This paper is signed by some of the best business men of the State, and is doubtless worth dollar for dollar. The notes which have fallen due have been promptly paid. We recommend the hearty support and co-operation of the Conference during the ensuing year with the efforts of W. C. Watson to secure the sum of $225,000 for the purpose of buildings and endowment.

We recommend that the ensuing Conference year which is the twenty-fifth year of the school's history, be observed in harmony with the plans of the authorities of the college by setting apart the first Sunday in June or such other day as may be found more practicable as Galloway Day.

Hendrix College.

The report of Hendrix College forcibly brings to the attention of the Conference the imperative need of additional buildings and endowment. No new buildings have been erected on Hendrix campus in over twenty years. We therefore heartily concur in the new plan of the Board of Trustees to raise funds with which to erect a Science hall, Dormitory, President's Home and Gymnasium, and to increase the endowment to a half million dollars.

We suggest that the Conference record its appreciation of the distinguished services of Dr. A. C. Miller, who retired last June of his own accord from the Presidency of Hendrix College. Dr. Miller set the pace for higher education in Arkansas and at the cost of blood and the personal popularity built up with the help of others, the highest standard of any institution in the State. To his new field of labor he is followed by the esteem and love of the church and his thousands of friends in Arkansas.

The time limit for collecting endowment subscriptions is March the first, nineteen fourteen. We recommend to our pastors and laymen active co-operation with W. B. Hubbell in closing out these subscriptions. We transmit herewith and recommend for adoption the charter of Hendrix College amended by the Board of Trustees so as to conform to the new law of our church enacted by the General Conference, 1910.

Henderson-Brown.

The President reported that Henderson-Brown has reorganized its teaching force into a college faculty and a high school faculty separate and distinct from each other and is now operating under such organization. The college faculty consists of eight; the high school five; the faculty of fine arts, six; total, nineteen; and that an application is before the General Board of Education for classification as B grade college, and that the President has been given the assurance that the classification will be made at the earliest practical moment.

Captain C. C. Henderson, President of the Board of Trustees of Henderson-Brown College came before the Board of Education and made an additional report of the financial condition of the college. He stated that the institution was carrying a debt of $22,500 secured by a mortgage on the property and is now past due. We endorse the efforts of the Board of Trustees to raise said fund and recommend the hearty cooperation and support of the Conference with any financial agent the college may hereafter secure for that purpose.

Recommendations.

First—That you endorse the observance of an annual vocation day.

Second—That an assessment be made on the conference for ministerial loan fund to be administered by the General Board of Education of an amount equal to the assessment for delegates' expenses to the General Conference. The same to be collected the years of the quadrennium in which no assessments are made for the delegates' expenses.

Third—That in response to request from the Arkansas Conference, W. C. Davidson, Forney Hutchinson and T. M. Fourteenth—That Rev. P. H. Willis be appointed Professor in Methodist Training School at Nashville, Tenn. That Rev. C. J. Greene be appointed Professor in Hendrix College.

Fifteenth—That Capt. R. W. Huie, J. H. Hinemon, A. O. Evans, W. E. Barkman and T. M. Mehaffy be elected to succeed themselves as Trustees of Henderson-Brown College, and that Rev. W. M. Hayes be elected to fill out the unexpired term of Rev. W. F. Evans.

Sixteenth—That the attention of our preachers and people be called to the helpful and abundant literature published by the Board of Education, which may be secured free of cost by applying to the office of the Board, 810, Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

Seventeenth—That the following be made the assessment for education the ensuing year:

We recommend that the Trustees of the Mena Academy and the Presiding Elder of Texarkana District be allowed to dispose of Mena Academy property and appropriate the proceeds of same to their local church debt, if, upon investigation, they find that they can legally do so.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

We your Epworth League Board, respectfully submit the following report:

With great pleasure we note the presence of Rev. J. M. Culbreth of the Central Office, who rendered us valuable assistance by his presence and suggestions, and also his inspiring and helpful address.

Reviewing the work of the League during the past year we are gratified to know of the advancements made along different lines of service.

We desire to emphasize the following features of League work for the coming year, which we believe merit hearty support by all League workers.

First—That each district be organized into a District League, and an Epworth League Institute be held in each district of the Little Rock Conference. This board shall gladly welcome the co-operation in this matter on the part of the Sunday School and Mission Boards of this Conference.

Second—In view of the large success of the Cedar Glades Mission, Rev. J. H. McKelvey, pastor, we urge every local chapter to give it hearty support, and also recommend that we, as far as possible, assist in the Cuba Special.

Third—Literature from the Central office gives information that twenty-five Annual Epworth League Conferences were held the past year, reaching 5,000 young people, resulting in many volunteers to special Christian service; also we note in our own Conference where local chapters have representatives at League Conferences there is added interest and more efficient service. We therefore urge upon all our League Chapters to send delegates to the Epworth League Conference next year, which meets at Pine Bluff.

Fourth—We recommend the observance of Anniversary Day the first Sunday in May, and that an offering be taken for Epworth League extension, in addition to the regular ten cent assessment.

Fifth—A vacancy having occurred in the Board of Commissioners on Epworth League Assembly Grounds by the transfer of Dr. A. C. Miller, we recommend the appointment of Rev. James Thomas to fill this vacancy, and further recommend the continuance of this board another year.

Sixth—It is plain that the future growth of the Epworth League depends upon training the boys and girls of tender years. We therefore bespeak for our Junior Superintendent, Mrs. Joe Goetz, the prompt and sincere cooperation of every pastor and leader. We beg to call attention to the fact that the latest addition to the Central office staff at Nashville is a Junior League Superintendent for the whole church. Miss Ada Trawick, who will be ready at any and all times to render such assistance as may be needed.

Seventh—By action of the General Epworth League Board at its last session, a plan known as the Knights of Ezelah was adopted as the best means of reaching and developing our boys between twelve and sixteen. Literature describing the organization may be had by addressing "The Knights of Ezelah," 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

Eighth—The Epworth Era in its new magazine form is proving an invaluable asset to the chapters throughout the church. We commend the devotional department and the League at work department especially as containing practical help and inspiration not only for the young people, but for our pastors.

Ninth—Announcement has been made that the Quadrennial International Convention of the Epworth League will be held in Buffalo, N. Y., July 1st to 5th, 1914. It is the purpose of this Board to do all in its power to encourage a large delegation to attend this convention from the bounds of the Little Rock Conference.

Respectfully submitted.

B. B. THOMAS, President.
J. B. SIMS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference: Dear Brethren: We, your Board of Church Extension, submit the following report:

Our progress during the year has been gratifying in many respects. Our people are becoming better informed concerning this great work and are paying more liberally. We believe that our pastors have done well to present this matter to their congregations. In order to foster this growing spirit of liberality among the people, we recommend that the pastors secure the necessary literature from the General Board office in Louisville and distribute it in their congregations, and that they preach on this cause at least once during the year. We especially commend to the church that excellent compilation of sermons which was prepared by our General Secretary: "Priming for the Pump." This, together with our other literature, may be had for the asking. Let us inform the people that they may pay intelligently and more liberally.

We urge the pastors who make application for aid to the Board to give more careful and dilligent attention to filling out the blanks. The preference is always given to those applications which come in neat and correct form. This is a matter which should not be treated lightly by the pastors.

The Board heartily commends the plan for the meeting of the Representatives of Conference Boards of Church Extension and has elected Rev. A. M. Shaw to represent the Little Rock Conference at the meeting next spring.

The Board wishes to urge the pastors in the rural communities, who are preparing to build churches, to take thought of the Sunday School and make adequate provision for it. In order to encourage the pastors in this line of wark the Board has decided to give especial attention to applications for aid to such church building enterprises. By writing either to Rev. J. R. Dickerson or the Secretary of the Board you can secure plans and suggestions for meeting the present needs of the country churches in providing equipment for the Sunday Schools.

The funds at the disposal of the Board are in excess of those last year. The total amount received in 1912 was $4,048.00, of which amount $2,024.00 was for distribution among our own churches. The amount collected during 1913 was $4,606.00, of which amount $2,303.00 was at the disposal of the Board. This was $225.00 in excess of the amount distributed last year.

LAYMEN'S ORGANIZATION.

We rejoice to report the General Missionary movement among laymen to be in a hopeful condition. The movement has assumed a more compact and thorough organization throughout our entire denomination. An increasing number of lay leaders both district and local are at work and in an increasing number of churches the Missionary committees have been formed. District lay leaders in our Conference report that in many sections it has not been possible to secure committees. The leaders complain of a lack of cooperation on the part of pastors and in many places these leaders have not been able to enlist pastors in an effort to organize committees in their churches. In the absence of such cooperation no real progress can be had. The pastor is the natural leader of his people and however earnestly the laymen may desire and however intelligently and persistently they may try to marshal their brethren they cannot do so unless the pastors give their fullest and heartiest influence to the efforts. It is the purpose of the laymen not to hinder but to help and not to put additional labor on the preacher, but to make their labor count for a larger success; hence they plead for an opportunity to make the most of the laymen of Methodism in this Conference and invite the counsel, confidence and cooperation of presiding elders and pastors in the enlistment of the laity.

The outcome of the great Missionary Conference at Junaluska is an indication of the increasing vision and enlarging of Methodist laymen and furnishes a prophecy of what may be led to do through wise and broad minded leadership.

The financial method adopted by the boards of our church set forth a "financial method for Methodist," is recognized by leaders in our churches as embodying the best thought and ripest experience in church finances. It is our wish as laymen to put the method therein set forth in operation throughout the bounds of our conference. With an active lay leader and well organized missionary committee in every church backed up by the leadership of the pastor we believe it can be done and when done effectively it will solve the financial problem in our Conference and swell beyond anything we have known the income for the benevolence of the church.

We therefore respectfully urge the appointment of a lay leader and missionary committee in every church and pledge to the pastor any service we can render to that end.

We respectfully request our Presiding Elder in making programs for their district conferences to give space for the Laymen's Missionary Movement and to provide by the assistance of the district and conference lay leaders a suitable program for the purpose.

We nominate for conference lay leader, J. H. Waters.

November Nineteenth, Nineteen Thirteen.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

...We, the Board of Trustees of the Little Rock Annual Conference, beg leave to submit this our annual report:

We are trying through the machinery of our Conference to keep before its members the importance of this fund, that we may be able to more largely augment the meagre stipend allowed our superannuated preachers, and the widows and orphans of the deceased preachers.

We have loaned out the Lew A. Davis fund, of $1,000.00, and in addition thereto have several notes of the brethren amounting to $450.00. Brother A. D. Jenkins has given us $50.00, amounting in all to a principal of $1,500.00.

We have collected interest this year amounting to $90.00, which sum we have turned over to the Joint Board of Finance.

We attach the constitution hereto and make it a part of this report, and request that it be published in our Minutes.

1st—The name of said corporation shall be the Board of Trustees of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

2nd—The object of said corporation shall be to receive, hold and administer all monies, funds and property, (real and personal) that may from time to time come into its hands by donation, gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise for any of the uses, purposes and needs of the Little Rock Conference, particularly funds and property for the use of superannuate preachers, and the widows and orphans of the deceased preachers of said Conference.

3rd—Said Board is authorized to place at interest any and all funds that may come into its hands for the use and benefit of said Conference, and shall make a report to the Annual meeting of the Little Rock Conference, showing disposition of the interest thus received, provided always that the board shall carry out the wishes of the donors of the said funds or property.

4th—The vacancies of said Board shall be filled by the said Little Rock Conference on nomination of the Board of Trustees, but in the interim such vacancies shall be filled by the remainder of the Board.

5th—The regular meeting of said Board shall be on the first day of the Annual Conference session, and at the same place as the Conference is held.

6th—That the officers of said Board shall consist of a President and Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected every two years.

7th—Three members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business.

The following names compose the Board:

T. D. SCOTT, President.

JAMES THOMAS, Secretary and Treas.

R. W. McKAY,

J. A. SAGE,

L. B. LEIGH,

T. M. MEHAFFY,

W. C. DAVIDSON.

Respectfully submitted.

Your Committee on Methodist Orphanage respectfully report that we are gratified with the good management by our present

Board of Trustees. We herewith submit the report of the Orphanage Board as follows:

"The work done by the Orphanage the past year is such as to fill us with the deepest gratitude to our Heavenly Father, who has so wisely and so kindly led us through the year.

We had no death, and little sickness, during the year. The sickness was confined, almost entirely, to new children, who came from malarial districts.

At the close of our fiscal year, Sept. 30, 1912, we had in the Home, 32 children; from Oct. 1, 1912 to Sept. 30, 1913, we received 23 children, and placed 19, leaving 35 in the Home. This is the largest work ever done by our Orphanage. More received, more placed, and more in the Home than at the close of any former year.

During the existence of the institution, we have placed 177 children. If we had kept them all, we would now have 213, in the Home. Each year's added experience confirms us more and more to the wisdom of the plan of placing children in homes, to become permanent members of families. Orphans are not only blessed in securing homes, but homes are made happy by the presence of children and the church is relieved of the burden of supporting them in the Orphanage.

During the year we rejected 18 applications for children. We refused admission to three children, who were over age, prescribed by our rules; two whose father was living, and four whose father and mother were both living.

Bro. Thornburg collected and paid out during the year, $3,322.86 for additions to the heating plant, sidewalks, water boiler, completing the south front of the building, installing gas for heating in place of coal, sundry other smaller items, and including $2,100, the principal and interest of the last note against the Orphanage. We are happy to report that there is not now one dollar of indebtedness against the institution.

Bro. Thornburgh has raised in all, for the building and furnishings, $32,895.28, of which we expended on the building and grounds, approximately $30,000 and the remainder for furnishings.

The building of a sewer by the city to accommodate the neighborhood, in which the Orphanage is located, will require the expenditure of a large amount of money, to make the connections with the Orphanage, as it is a very deep cut, and through rock. It will also require considerable outlay to place the fixtures in the Orphanage for sewer connections. We have not sufficient funds on hand now to do this work, but we believe the money will be supplied to Bro. Thornburgh in due time, by those whose hearts can be touched by the needs of the orphan children.

The internal management of the institution has been very satisfactory. It is a well governed home, and a happy family. So much so, that it is hard to induce the children to willingly leave it for other homes.

The amounts raised by the Conferences for running expenses the last year were as follows:

Arkansas Conference, $722.00; Little Rock Conference, $1,807.00; White River Conference, $761.00; total $3,290.00.

The current expenses of the Home for the year were $3,577.36, showing that the Conferences do not provide enough money to run the institution. But for the business management which supplements the Conference collections, the Orphanage would run in debt.

Respectfully submitted,
Nov. 18, 1913. By the Board,
G. H. KIMBALL, Secretary.

Your committee is informed that there is only one salaried officer connected with the Orphanage—that is, the matron who receives $50.00 per month.

We heartily commend Bro. Thornburgh for the time and labor given him by the institution and are grateful for the large amount of money he has raised for the building and furnishing, for which he has refused compensation.

We urge that every congregation throughout the Conference observe one Sunday in each year as Orphanage Day, as heretofore provided by resolution of this Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
R. A. McCLINTOCK, Chairman.
F. P. DOAK, Secretary.

REV. JAMES M. CLINE.

James Madison Cline was born in York County, S. C., Nov. 20, 1832, died near Benton, Ark. Aug. 14, 1913. His mother died when he was an infant and he was reared in the home of his mother's brother, James Neely, an elder in the Presbyterian church. He was a devout child and in early life showed an inclination toward the ministry. His uncle took great pride in him, giving him every possible advantage. After the usual preparation, he sent him to Ogelthorpe University in Georgia, a Presbyterian institution. In his senior year he became dissatisfied with the doctrines of his church and upon the advice of the president of the college, he joined the M. E. Church, South. Soon after, Nov. 3, 1855, he was licensed to preach. In the fall of 1856 he was admitted on trial in the South Carolina Conference, and appointed to Newberry circuit with Thomas Raynor; 1857, Bennettsville circuit with Paul F. Kistler; 1858, Yorkville circuit; 1859, Society Hill, Miss.; 1860, Albemarle; 1861, Ansonville; 1862, Morganton; 1863-4, Catawba; 1865-6, Rock Hill. The minutes state that while he was thus appointed, part of his time he was in the Confederate army. 1867, South Charlotte circuit; 1868, Pleasant Grove. About this time a great sorrow came to his life in the tragic death of his oldest daughter. There were but few bridges in those days. He was trying to cross a small stream, with his little girl in the buggy with him, when they were thrown into the water and the child was drowned. His mind staggered under the weight of grief, disqualifying him for service. He located at the end of the year and came to Arkansas.

The next we hear of him he was readmitted, the fall of 1870, in the Little Rock Conference and appointed to the Little Rock circuit; 1871 to Collegeville and Mill Creek; 1872, 3, 4 and 5, Benton circuit; 1876, Rockport circuit; 1877-8, he was supernumerary; 1879, Benton circuit; 1880, supernumerary; 1881, Austin; 1882, Maumelle; 1883, 4 and 5, Galloway; 1886, Gurdon; 1887-8, supernumerary. In 1889 he was given Little River Mission; 1890, Lewisville; 1891, Ouachita, 1892, New Edinburg; 1893, McNeil; 1894, he was superannuated which relation he sustained till his death. He was married to Miss Mary McKay of Yorkville S. C., Oct. 27, 1856. To them were born six children; two survive him, Mrs. W. H. Scott, near Benton, Ark., and Rev. John W. Cline, President of Soochow University, China.

He was a preacher of the old school. He dwelt mostly on the great themes of the gospel. His sermons were well built, nothing superfluous about them, and at times were attended with singular power. He was a circuit preacher, and was happy there. Though college bred, he felt honored to be a circuit man. Any system of education that takes the sympathies of the well equipped preacher and teacher from the country people, will bankrupt any nation. He was diligent and faithful, going from house to house, occupying new fields, organizing new churches, enlarging every field assigned to him. There are now strong stations and circuits where he practically began the work. Such men are the real civilization builders, more so than mere money makers or politicians or military leaders. And now well he wrought two continents are brought under tribute to his influence. His only son, for sixteen years has been in China helping to build a Christian civilization for that great nation. His life became more beautiful with increasing years. A few years ago he seemed to pass from under every cloud and thenceforth his skies were always sunny. He was the happiest man among us. His heart was aglow with love and good cheer. He did not grow old, but was always as fresh as the morning. Along with his church interests, he studied the heavens, and his deliverances on astronomy attracted the attention of astronomers all over the world. He received many appreciative letters from them. He has finished his course with joy.

T. D. SCOTT.

REV. GEORGE W. LOGAN.

Rev. George W. Logan, son of John C. and Dercas Logan, was born in Clark County, Ark., near where the town of Okolona now stands, July 24, 1837. At an early age he entered Sunday School, where he learned to read. He joined the M. E. Church, South, in November, 1850, and was converted about a year after in a meeting held by B. C. and A. L. Weir. About the age of 15 he felt a call to preach, and at 20 he felt it his duty to begin at once. He was licensed to exhort August, 1858, and licensed to preach September, 1860; ordained deacon by Bishop George F. Pierce, at Arkadelphia, 1866; ordained elder by Bishop W. M. Wightman, 1875. For 22 years he was a local preacher, serving six years as a supply. In the year 1882 he was employed by the Conference to organize what was known as Mountain Mission. At the end of that year he was admitted on trial into the Little Rock Conference, and returned to Mountain Mission, where he remained another year, 1884-5. He served Falcon circuit, 1886; Carolina, 1887-8-9; Stephens Circuit, 1890-1; Atlanta, 1892; El Dorado Circuit, 1893-4; Emmet, 1895; Richmond, 1896-7; Collegeville and Alexander, 1898; Okolona, 1899, 1900-1; Holly Springs, 1902; Cherry Hill, 1903-4; Carolina, 1905; Prescott Circuit, 1906; Hampton, 1907; Social Hill, 1908; Malvern Circuit, 1909; Cherry Hill. This was his last charge. His work was about done. His decline was rapid and after being a superannuate a little more than three years, he died at his home in Arkadelphia, March 11, 1913.

Brother Logan was married to Miss Mariel T. McLaughlin, July 14, 1858, who with three boys and three girls survive him. June 20, 1862, he was sworn into service as a Confederate soldier, and he served three years. The war over, he took his wife and child and settled on a farm in Pike County, near Murfreesboro, in which vicinity he continued to reside till he joined the Conference. He was a useful man. As a citizen he was honored and trusted. He served nine years as an official of his county. As a local preacher he was loved. His neighbors petitioned his presiding elder, Dr. Andrew Hunter, to put him on Murfreesboro Circuit as their pastor, which place he supplied in all five years.

As a conference man he was what we call a good preacher. His preaching was plain, sound and evangelical. Everybody loved him. He was everybody's friend. His educational advantages were meagre, but he knew God; he knew how to hold meetings, sing, pray, exhort, instruct the mourners; he got people converted and saved from their sins. Such men type our civilization more than our great financiers, military leaders, statesmen or scientists. A people's civilization is determined by their religion, and the man who leads men to Christ is the man who ultimately determines the character of things with any people.

He died in the county where he was born and Clark County lost one of its most distinguished citidens when he passed away.

Arkadelphia, Ark.

T. D. SCOTT.

JOHN H. RIGGIN, D. D.

One of the most familiar names in the roster of Arkansas Methodism during the past fifty years is that of Rev. John H. Riffin. The name is frequent in the minutes of every session of the Little Rock Conference in that time. His contributions to the church papers have made his name a household word among the Methodists throughout the State. His long connection with the church, and his responsible positions in it, have given him a good name and a deserved place throughout Southern Methodism. His vigorous defense of Methodist doctrine and polity in the pulpit, in debate, in papers, and in pamphlets has made him well known and respected among leaders of other churches.

His parents were George W. and Martha Riffin, and he was born October 7, 1834, in Pittsville, Md. He was born hungry to know, and it was well for him that he was; for he was to have almost no school advantages, and that insatiable hunger for knowledge was to urge him on to self-education. Before he was 5 years old he had read the New Testament through, and he said: "That was not so remarkable but for the fact that no other child in the community knew the alphabet at that age." Yet, with this mental eagerness, quickness and ability, he had no encouragement or help except that of a "country school of the poorest character," until after he was 21. At that age he went to Missouri, without means or letters of introduction, to make his way among strangers in a new country. However, he drew to himself friends, taught a country school awhile, and had the good fortune to attend the last session of the Howard High School in Fayette, which was presided over then by Professor Carr W. Pritchett. In that year (1857) Central College was organized, but young Riffin did not have the means to enter college, so continued to teach until the outbreak of the Civil War. He was a student all the while, mastering higher mathematics and attaining a good working knowledge of Latin, Greek and Hebrew. In the course of his life he gathered about him a good library of the best authors, and became exceptionally well read. No man has lived among us with better intellectual furnishings.

His religious life began early. He distinctly remembered the reception of his parents into the Methodist Church in his fifth year, as well as the baptism of himself and three younger brothers at the same service. He said a family altar was established at that time, and that his home was ever afterwards Christian.

Young Riffin was licensed to preach in June, 1860, in Glasgow, Mo. He proposed entering the itinerancy in 1861, but the war was on, and he entered the Confederate service. At first he was with the State Guard under General Price, and was at the siege of Lexington. In January, 1862, he entered the First Brigade under command of General Little. He was with this brigade at Elk Horn, Iuka and Corinth.

But he was called to preach, and the din of war did not drown the voice of that call. In the camps he felt a divine impatience to be about his work. In 1863, with the advice and help of some friends, he applied for and secured a position as chaplain. He often said that was the only time of his life that he asked for an appointment. He was assigned to duty in the N. W. Fifteenth Arkansas Infantry, commanded by W. W. Reynolds. He shared the fortunes of his company at Port Gibson, Champion Hills, Big Black and Vicksburg. Then followed the surrender of the regiment, the parole, and in the fall of the reorganization in parole camps near Washington, Ark. Half the regiment mounted, were sent across the state to the Mississippi river, to receive arms. The young chaplain went with the boys, riding across the swamps in the bitterest weather of the winter to Gaines' Landing and return. On the trip the young chaplain won all hearts, and from that time every man was his friend. They heard him preach, great revivals followed, gambling and profanity gave way, tent prayer meetings were established, and a Sunday School was organized. He supplied the men with the New Testament, gathered text-books from whatever source possible, and instructed the men in grammar and mathematics; showing under such discouraging conditions his love for teaching. His regiment surrendered at Marshall, Texas, in 1865, and Riggin accompanied a remnant back to Arkansas. They passed through Rondo, near the site now covered by Texarkana. Calling to pay his respects to the Methodist preacher, he found him just recovering from typhoid fever and abandoning the work. Riggin met the presiding elder, John Pryor, and was appointed by him to finish out the year on Rondo and African Mission.

The "Wachitat" Conference (now the Little Rock) met in October of that year at El Dorado, and Riggin was admitted on trial along with Samuel G. Colburn, Benjamin O. Davis, James Stincil, George E. Butler and William C. Adams. He was appointed that year to Monticello Station. For 44 years his active ministry was without interruption, and in that time he served almost every kind of a charge and rendered almost every kind of service. Six years he conducted schools, eight years he spent on circuits and missions; nine years he occupied important stations, and twenty-one years he served as presiding elder.

He was given to Arkansas by the fortunes of war, and was one of the heroic men who gathered and reorganized and revitalized our broken Methodism in this Conference after the war. He wholly gave himself to the Little Rock Conference, and never entertained a thought of going elsewhere or of undertaking any other work than that of a Methodist preacher. He was a member of the General Conference in St. Louis in 1890, in Memphis in 1894, and in Baltimore in 1898. Four years he was a member of the General Board of Missions. For more than twenty years he was a member of the Board of Trustees of Hendrix College, and he gloried in being one of the far-sighted and heroic band who founded that institution of learning and shaped its policy. He received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Hendrix College in 1889. He is the author of "The Origin of the Baptists," "Origin of Infant Baptism," and other booklets that have had a wide circulation.

Abundant and invaluable as his other services have been, it is as a preacher that Doctor Riggin is entitled to his greatest distinction. He drew all his thoughts that way. He was mighty in the Scriptures. He had a marvelous fund of general information. God blessed him with a most reliable memory that placed all needed facts at command. He had a logical mind that was quick to organize facts. His vocabulary was chaste, expressive, and set his invincible arguments in business dress. He was not fanciful; but after search awhile in the deep things, or patiently and surely climbing to the heights, the prophet's vision came to him and he saw beyond what was written. He was painstaking, sure and calm in the foundation of his discourse; but was apt to be fervent when he brought forth the capstone. His preaching was strong meat; and there was no greater feast to thoughtful, spiritual and substantial Methodists than a sermon from Dr. Riggin when he was in a preaching mood. He preached all over Southern Arkansas for 45 years, to the delight and edification of thousands. In all those years he bore the honor of being the best preacher in our Conference.

He took the superannuate relation in 1909 and settled in Arkadelphia. He continued active in reading and writing until a short while before he passed from us. He was sick with la grippe in the early months of 1913. He was never able to recover, but gradually lost strength until May 30, when the weight of nearly eighty years proved too much for the worn body, and it was not able to follow the immortal Riggin further. We buried the body from the Methodist Church in Arkadelphia, May 31, 1913; but the immortal, thinking, Christian preacher lives on:

W. P. WHALEY.

Camden, Ark., June 30, 1913.

Sidney Catherine Follin (nee Hammond) was the widow of the late Rev. J. F. Follin, once a member of the Texas Conference. Twenty-nine years ago I went for the first time to their home as presiding elder and found them living in a little four-room board cottage on the Davilla Circuit, Texas Conference. When asked if she was the preacher's wife, she replied: "Yes. I am more honored than the wife of the President of the United States. My husband is a circuit preacher. I have a brother (Rev. F. E. Hammond, now of the Baltimore Conference) who is a preacher." Laying her hand on her oldest boy's head, she said: "I am asking God to let me be the mother of an itinerant preacher." She was born in Botetourt County, Va., January 1, 1854; was married to Rev. J. F. Follin January 1, 1874; and died at her home, in Fort Worth, Texas, at 7:30 p. m., July 14, 1913. Her husband served missions, circuits, stations and districts in Virginia, Texas and in Arkansas, being transferred to the Little Rock Conference; and in this Conference he died as pastor of the Winfield, Memorial Church, at Little Rock, Ark. They had been married nineteen years when the husband died, and nineteen years she had lived a widow. She was the mother of five sons, now living in New York, Kansas, California and Texas. Last year, in answer to her prayer, her eldest son, Hammond, was called to the ministry, and is now on a circuit in Kansas. Soon after the death of her husband she came back to Texas and bought a home in Fort Worth near the Missouri Avenue Methodist Church, of which she was a consistent member up to the time of her death. She had faithfully and consistently filled her place as wife and mother. She very quietly but beautifully illustrated the religion of her Christ and showed the meaning of what the Master meant when He said: "Ye are the light of the world." Wherever I go in this great state where she has lived people anxiously inquire about the welfare and about her progress in the divine life. Progress was the characteristics of her faith. All her sons necessarily left home to secure maintenance except the youngest, and with him some people thought she lived a lonely life; but she was not alone. She would say: "I am still living in the twenty-third and thirty-seventh Psalms. I have but two purposes to live for: First to glorify my Master, and next, to see my children all converted and as many called to the ministry as God pleases. Then I shall say: 'Now, Lord, lettest thou thy servant depart in peace.'" Though her boys are scattered, her husband sleeps in the cemetery in Little Rock, her preacher brother and loved ones in Virginia, and she sleeps in the cemetery at Fort Worth, Texas, what a great reunion it will be when they are all gathered home to Him in the sweet by and by!

I. Z. T. MORRIS.

Vantrease—Nannie E. (nee Miller), was born November 7, 1855, in Georgia. When she was five years old, her parents moved to Polk county, Arkansas. When she was nine years old her parents died and she was taken into the home of her grand parents. Death took them from her when she was fifteen; and, the next two years, she found a home with other relatives. On her seventeenth birthday she was married to J. W. Vantrease. In her nineteenth year, she was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, under the ministry of Rev. W. R. Gardner. The first half of her married life was spent on the farm. About twenty years ago, Brother Vantrease joined the Little Rock Conference. He continued in active connection sixteen years, then took the superannuate relation on account of the failure of his health. Through all of his itinerant career, Sister Vantrease filled and adorned the place of a Methodist preacher's wife. Her husband accords to her the credit for the sweetness of their home, the righteousness of their children, and the success of his ministry. Her pastor, W. A. Steele, says that her religious life was not demonstrative but gentle, quiet, and full of assurance. She was a Christian mother. Six Christian children rise up and call her blessed. Others preceded her to heaven. "By their fruits ye shall know them." She often expressed a wish to live until her children were grown. This she was allowed to do. When the end came on March 12, 1913, she was ready and resigned. Her work was done, her life rounded out, and she welcomed the change into the new body like Christ's.
